Contract for Pastoral Ministry
Northern Texas – Northern Louisiana Mission Area
Sowing and Growing Disciples of Jesus

______________________________
(Pastor's name)

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Our ministry comes from Christ through the church and belongs to the whole people of God. The gospel calls all Christians to be ministers in word and deed. So it is the privilege of every Christian to be a steward of the gospel of God's reconciling love. The whole church ministers as it celebrates God's presence, shares good news, cares for those in need and witnesses to the power of God's love.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America recognizes the office of pastor. It also recognizes that there are occasions when parishes will need to be served by pastors under short-term contracts. Keeping in mind the apostolic advice that all things be done decently and in order (1 Corinthians 14:40), the church provides for a contract of ministry for defined periods of time.

Accordingly, this congregation contracts with you to serve as

GUIDELINES FOR PASTORAL MINISTRY
Compensation

The Contract Pastor’s compensation is negotiated between the pastor and the Congregation Council and stated in the Contract for Pastoral Ministry agreement. The following guidelines (found in the mission area’s policy Compensation for Pulpit Supply and Interim Ministry) are instructive for determining fair compensation.

- Full Time: The adopted mission area policy statement (see the constitution section of the Mission Area Yearbook) states that a “reasonable minimum for full time interim pastoral service would be the compensation guideline minimum salary for the pastor, plus (1) full medical and pension coverage, (2) allowances for travel and professional fees, and (3) prorated vacation and continuing education time.” Please refer to the mission area’s Care and Compensation guidelines available at “www.NTNL.org/Downloads” or from the mission area office to determine the recommended compensation for pastors based on their years of service.

- Part Time: Contract pastors serving part time are compensated for Sunday morning services at the same rate as those doing Pulpit Supply – currently $150 for one service, $200 for two services, or $250 for three services on a Sunday morning. This includes preparation time. For pastoral services beyond Sunday morning, the same policy referred to above states that the “compensation for professional service should be no less than $250.00 per day of service (based on an 8-hour day), plus current IRS rate for travel allowance. Lodging costs, if any, shall be additional.” The $250.00 per day minimum would suggest $31.25 per hour for each additional hour beyond 8 hours in a day.

- The Contract Pastor may request that a portion of her/his compensation be designated as housing allowance or forwarded to the Board of Pensions for medical or pension payments.

- The congregation should provide for housing the pastor if she/he must stay overnight on site.

- The congregation should reimburse the pastor for business miles driven on a personal automobile at the current IRS rate. It would be fair to also reimburse the pastor’s commuting miles.

- The congregation should offer the pastor continuing education time/funds as well as one week of vacation for every three months of full time service.

The purpose of this Contract for Pastoral Ministry is to clearly define duties, days and hours of service, mutual expectations, and compensation. It is expected that the pastor and the chief lay officer be the two main sources of contact for the mission area office and the conference dean. If there are any questions about interim ministry agreements, call the mission area office.
