

“Ministry speaks to people’s deepest need to know they are loved. Jesus meets us where we are, and we are empowered to extend the gift of presence and accompaniment to one another. At Wartburg Seminary I have experienced this accompaniment from classmates, professors and staff, making it place of both learning and nourishment for me.”

CARINA IS A 2ND YEAR STUDENT WHO IS PASSIONATE ABOUT WALKING WITH OTHERS IN FAITH AND SPEAKING SPANISH. SHE IS EAGER TO APPLY WHAT SHE’S LEARNED WHILE ON INTERNSHIP NEXT YEAR.

“I look forward to the privilege of hearing and entering into people’s stories and lives, advocating for all people, especially the oppressed, asking questions, and preaching the Good News, of course!”

*Carina Schiltz, Master of Divinity
Wartburg Theological Seminary*

TUITION DOES NOT COVER THE COST OF THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION. SEMINARIES RELY UPON GIFTS FROM INDIVIDUALS, CONGREGATIONS, AND FOUNDATIONS. SUPPORT THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION AND THE FORMATION OF LEADERS BY:

GIVING

Make a gift and encourage others to support theological education.

SERVANTS IN MINISTRY

Is there someone you know who may have gifts for ministry? Tell them about seminary and encourage them to explore their call.

CONGREGATIONS

Build awareness in your congregation for theological education by using seminary resources. www.wartburgseminary.edu/toolkit

www.wartburgseminary.edu

“Ministry speaks to people’s deepest need to know they are loved. Jesus meets us where we are, and we are empowered to extend the gift of presence and accompaniment to one another. At Wartburg Seminary I have experienced this accompaniment from classmates, professors and staff, making it place of both learning and nourishment for me.”

CARINA IS A 2ND YEAR STUDENT WHO IS PASSIONATE ABOUT WALKING WITH OTHERS IN FAITH AND SPEAKING SPANISH. SHE IS EAGER TO APPLY WHAT SHE’S LEARNED WHILE ON INTERNSHIP NEXT YEAR.

“I look forward to the privilege of hearing and entering into people’s stories and lives, advocating for all people, especially the oppressed, asking questions, and preaching the Good News, of course!”

*Carina Schiltz, Master of Divinity
Wartburg Theological Seminary*

TUITION DOES NOT COVER THE COST OF THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION. SEMINARIES RELY UPON GIFTS FROM INDIVIDUALS, CONGREGATIONS, AND FOUNDATIONS. SUPPORT THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION AND THE FORMATION OF LEADERS BY:

GIVING

Make a gift and encourage others to support theological education.

SERVANTS IN MINISTRY

Is there someone you know who may have gifts for ministry? Tell them about seminary and encourage them to explore their call.

CONGREGATIONS

Build awareness in your congregation for theological education by using seminary resources. www.wartburgseminary.edu/toolkit

www.wartburgseminary.edu