

VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

SAMARITAN'S FEET & FEED THE HUNGRY 2014 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four Community Outreach Event

Working with the Samaritan's Feet and Feed the Hungry organizations, the NCAA Men's Final Four will distribute 2,000 pairs of new shoes and food boxes to North Texas families in need.

A large number of volunteers are needed to assist with the process, particularly with the shoe distribution. Part of the mission of Samaritan's Feet is to demonstrate servant-leadership and humility by washing the feet of the recipients before trying on their new shoes, thereby providing a profound opportunity to connect with each recipient and to share a message of encouragement.

HOW TO SIGN-UP

Follow instructions on separate SFFTH VOLUNTEER REGISTRATION form. The website is <https://2014ncaafinal4.theregistrationsystem.com/en/1818>

Provide requested information, including at which site you can volunteer.

A couple of notes: 1) Time – the times listed on the site are one hour longer than what is listed above. Please plan for the times listed above; 2) You must sign up for a volunteer orientation session – and to bring canned items – but you should NOT attend the orientation nor bring food. This is a nuance of the system. Typically volunteers have to sign up for three events/shifts but SFFTH volunteers do not.

Individuals MUST sign up before Friday, February 28 due to the background check.

Additional information (e.g., parking, check-in location) will be sent after registration is completed.
