✦ "My team from Western Massachusetts all enjoyed it greatly and came away inspired for this ministry. Prayers of gratitude for your ministry. When I speak at the ELCA Assembly of New England on Thursday I will mention your fine work." The Right Rev. Dr. Douglas J. Fisher, Episcopal Diocese of Western Massachusetts.

✦ "I came to this experience knowing NO Spanish other than "gracias" and "si." Although I still have a lot of work to do on Spanish vocabulary this experience helped me learn how to pronounce Spanish vowels, consonants and words. Maybe most important, I believe that (using a Spanish language worship book) I could now lead a worship service in Spanish, and even understand most of what is being said. Thank you again for your warm hospitality. Peace & Joy in Christ." Bishop Steve Delzer, Southeastern Minnesota Synod, ELCA.

✦ "I had a truly eye-opening experience at the Spanish Language and Hispanic Ministry Intensive last week. I came with a "Rosetta Stone Level One" Spanish language ability and left with a confidence in pronunciation and the facility to use liturgical phrases in my congregation's Misa en Español. I also learned an appreciation for the diversity within the Latino cultures through the many lectures and food samplings. I got so much more out of the Intensive than I thought I would. En paz y amor." Rev. Flora M. Hartford, NY.
