

Bridges

Book Club

Recent events involving the shooting of Dallas police officers and of young African-American men have raised the issue of racism in our national conversation. In order to provide opportunities for us to learn, to talk, and to grow in our understanding of each other in a safe and constructive environment, the NT-NL's Public Witness Team has established BRIDGES, a book club where these conversations may take place.

Our next discussion will be based on Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Letter from a Birmingham Jail. It is widely available free of charge from various websites, including this one: <https://kinginstitute.stanford.edu/king-papers/documents/letter-birmingham-jail>

Saturday, January 14, 2017
4:00 to 6:00 pm in Duncanville OR 2:00 to 4:00 pm in Fort Worth

Choose the site most convenient for you. Light refreshments will be served.
New Life in Christ Lutheran Church

311 S. Cockrell Hill Rd
Duncanville, Tx 75116
4:00 - 6:00 pm

Trinity Lutheran Church
3621 Tulsa Way
Fort Worth, TX 76107
2:00 to 4:00 pm

You are welcome to invite friends. To be on the email list for BRIDGES Book Club gatherings, please send your name, phone number and email address to jason@ntnl.org.

Bridges

Book Club

Recent events involving the shooting of Dallas police officers and of young African-American men have raised the issue of racism in our national conversation. In order to provide opportunities for us to learn, to talk, and to grow in our understanding of each other in a safe and constructive environment, the NT-NL's Public Witness Team has established BRIDGES, a book club where these conversations may take place.

Our next discussion will be based on Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Letter from a Birmingham Jail. It is widely available free of charge from various websites, including this one: <https://kinginstitute.stanford.edu/king-papers/documents/letter-birmingham-jail>

Saturday, January 14, 2017
4:00 to 6:00 pm in Duncanville OR 2:00 to 4:00 pm in Fort Worth

Choose the site most convenient for you. Light refreshments will be served.
New Life in Christ Lutheran Church

311 S. Cockrell Hill Rd
Duncanville, Tx 75116
4:00 - 6:00 pm

Trinity Lutheran Church
3621 Tulsa Way
Fort Worth, TX 76107
2:00 to 4:00 pm

You are welcome to invite friends. To be on the email list for BRIDGES Book Club gatherings, please send your name, phone number and email address to jason@ntnl.org.