

*A “Heads-up” Invitation to
The North Texas Senior Fest 2019*

*Resurrection Lutheran Church, Plano
February 23, 2019*

Theme: “Our Church—Faith in Action”

Our Main Speaker: Bishop Erik Gronberg

Bishop Gronberg was elected by the Northern Texas-Northern Louisiana Synod in April, 2016. Prior to his election, he served as lead pastor of Trinity, Fort Worth (2010-2016) and senior pastor of Dr. Martin Luther Church, Oconomowoc, Wisc. (2005-2010).

He was born in Austin, Texas. He attended Harvard University. Following graduation in 1999, he worked as a consultant in the financial and bond markets. He graduated from Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minn. in 2005. He earned a Ph.D. in Leadership Studies at Dallas Baptist University in 2017 with special interest in adaptive leadership in crisis. He lives in Fort Worth with his wife, Rev. Kendra Mohn, and their three children, Annika, Greta, and Axel.

Participants may attend three of the six workshops listed here:

1. New Models of Outreach – to children and families in neighborhoods.
2. The King of Instruments – the organ as a tool for praising God.
3. Worldwide Discipleship – local responses through Lutheran World Relief.
4. Christian Caregiving/Care-Receiving – personal discipleship through touching the needs of others.
5. Feeding the Hungry – local and broader ministries.
6. Brain Health – advances in science and resources for individuals.

Let this be the first event that you put on your 2019 calendar!

Share it with your friends.
