

NT-NL's List of Current Seminarian Candidates for Ministry

Rebecca Chase is in her final year of her Master of Divinity program at Luther Seminary. She is a member of Preston Meadow in Plano. Rebecca is currently fulfilling her internship year at Calvary in Richland Hills.

Aaron Colwick is finishing up his first year of his Master of Divinity Program online through Wartburg Theological Seminary. He is a member of Rejoice in Coppel, which is serving as his contextual learning site for his seminary program.

Christine Cracchiolo will be graduating from her Master of Divinity Program at Wartburg Theological Seminary this spring. She is an approved candidate for ordination and is a member of Abiding Grace in Southlake which served as her contextual learning site.

Brady Fox is a member of Our Saviour's in Durant, OK. Brady will be graduating from his Master of Divinity Program at Wartburg Theological Seminary this spring. He is currently in his final year on internship at Peace Lutheran Church in Austin and is an approved candidate for ordination.

Eliana Katchkey is a member of Christ in Dallas where she also serves as the youth and family director. Eliana began her studies part time this spring at Wartburg Theological Seminary and will move to full time this fall to pursue her Master of Divinity degree.

Jessica Nipp is in her third year of her Master of Divinity Program online through United Lutheran Seminary. Currently on internship, Jessica is serving at Covenant Lutheran Church in Temple, and St. Peter in Malone.

Trenton Ormsbee-Hale will be graduating from the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago this spring as a distance learner. He is currently a member at Messiah in Weatherford and is an approved candidate for Ordination.

Connie Ortega Connie will graduate from the TEEM program at the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago this spring. She currently serves as the Synodically Authorized Worship Leader for Adviento in Arlington and is an approved candidate for ordination.

Olivia Riddle is a member of St. Matthew Lutheran in Fort Worth. She is a residential student at the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago. During her studies, Olivia has been enjoying work as a chaplain in a prison ministry setting.

Johnna Page is currently in her first year of studies for her Master of Divinity degree at Wartburg Theological Seminary through their online program. She is a member at Bethel Lutheran in Avoca.

Michael Rivard is a member of Faith in Fort Worth currently into his second year of study for his Master of Divinity degree online at Luther Seminary.

Bryan Swecker is in his second year of study for his Master of Divinity degree online through Luther Seminary. He is a member of Trinity in Miles, where he serves as their Synodically Authorized Worship leader.