

NT-NL's List of Current Seminarian Candidates for Ministry

Paul Burow is a Word and Sacrament Candidate and a member of Shepherd King Lutheran Church in Lubbock. Paul is in his first year as a residential student at Luther Seminary in Minnesota and is enjoying his time on campus.

Gabriel Clagett is a member and serves on the council at Grace Lutheran Church in Midland. As a Word and Sacrament candidate, Gabriel began his online program fulltime at Wartburg Theological Seminary this fall.

Aaron Colwick is in the middle of his internship year at Wartburg Theological Seminary as a Word and Sacrament candidate. He is a member of Rejoice in Coppell, which is serving as his contextual learning site for his seminary program.

Tricia Huston is a member of Calvary Lutheran in Richland Hills. She started her online seminary education through Luther Seminary this past fall.

Eliana Katchkey is a member of Christ in Dallas where she also serves as the youth and family director. She is a Word and Sacrament Candidate and attends Wartburg Theological Seminary through their online program.

Johnna Page is currently in her second year of studies for her Master of Divinity degree at Wartburg Theological Seminary through their online program. She is a member at Bethel Lutheran in Avoca.

Michael Rivard is a member of Faith in Fort Worth currently into his second year of study for his Master of Divinity degree online at Luther Seminary and will be starting internship this fall.

Bryan Swecker is a Word and Sacrament Candidate working on his Master of Divinity degree online through Luther Seminary. He is a member of Trinity in Miles, where he serves as their Synodically Authorized Worship leader.